2024 Redi-Ref for Perianesthesia Practices (referred herein as 2024 Redi-Ref)

Copyright® 2024. ASPAN. All rights reserved. Reproduction or transmission of the materials by any means, electronic, mechanical, or otherwise, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the copyright holder (ASPAN) is a violation of copyright law.

All material in the 2024 Redi-Ref publication is, unless otherwise stated, the property of ASPAN. Copyright and other intellectual property laws protect these materials.

The 2024 Redi-Ref was designed as a quick/compact reference for the nurse to use at the bedside of a patient.

Users may not distribute copies to others, other than as listed below, whether or not in electronic form, whether or not for a fee or other consideration, without prior written consent of the copyright holder of the materials.

Multi-facility hospitals or multi-hospital healthcare systems: if the intention is to upload 2024 Redi-Ref information to a system intranet, shared internal website, learning management system, or other types of catalog systems, or photocopy the material, to provide all-access to nurses and healthcare workers, a discounted, unrestricted licensing program must be purchased from ASPAN. For information on a discounted, unrestricted licensing program, contact aspan@aspan.org.

A single, stand-alone hospital or facility must request and receive permission from ASPAN if the intention is to upload 2024 Redi-Ref information to its system intranet, shared internal website, learning management system, or other types of catalog systems, or photocopy the material, within this one particular hospital or facility.

Any individual user, hospital, facility, or multi-facility healthcare system may not make scanned or electronic copies of the .pdf files or save .pdf files to other USB drives, computers, or hard drives for distribution. No part of the publication is permitted to be emailed.
